Company Presentation

Brand

Lovers of traditional Hellenic distillation

The VANTANA distillery was founded in 1904 by Panagioti Vantana and for years operated in the commercial centre of Patras under the name 'Markato'.

Many people from Patras and elsewhere knew the traditional distillery and tasted its spirits: ouzo, vermouth, rum, brandy, tsipouro, mavrodafni, the 'sweet liquors', especially the 'VANTANA Tentoura' the famous drink of Patras.

Typical features of that time were the transportation of liquors in wooden barrels and the weighting measures 'oka' and 'drami'.

The tradition and love for distillation & spirit making continues till nowadays, passing to the third family generation, the grandsons of Panagioti Vantana, George & Panagioti Tzoudas.

Region

Patras - a birthplace of exquisite distillery

Our distillation & bottling take place in the outskirts of Patras, known for high quality waters.

Patras is located in the Achaia region and is the 3rd largest city of Greece with 250,000 inhabitants.

A historic port and hub for westerner travelers and commerce, Patras is known for its fertile land and long tradition of distillery and wine making.

Two centuries ago, in this important harbor and naval gate to the west, seamen carried aromatic herbs and spices from the east. Then, the chemists and distillers of Patras discovered incredible flavors and created tradition.
